

Apply for an EHIC

You can apply:

- in person - visit your local EHIC office
- online - if you have a medical card or Drugs Payment Scheme card
- by post - if you live in Dublin North West, Cork North & South Lee or Kilcock

To apply in person or by post you will need to give your:

- name
- address
- date of birth
- PPS number

You will need to show both of the following:

- a photo ID - for example, your passport or driving licence
- proof that you live in Ireland - for example, a rent agreement or an employment contract

You also need to show 1 of the following:

- proof of your PPS number - for example, a recent payslip, a Public Services Card or an Employment Detail Summary (the old P60)
- a letter from the Department of Social Protection if you get any social insurance payments, such as illness benefit, disability allowance or the state pension

If you're applying by post do not send original documents. Send us copies of your documents along with your completed application form.

Your EHIC will be posted to you within 10 working days of applying.

If you need an EHIC urgently, you can get a temporary certificate in person at your local EHIC office.
